

All Party Parliamentary Group on Social Science and Policy

Due Diligence Statement 2024

The Economic and Social Science Research Council UK pay Palace Yard for secretariat services to the All Party Parliamentary Group for Social Science and Policy. Members of Palace Yard working for the APPG are two former UK Parliamentarians Natascha Engel who was Deputy Speaker of the UK Parliament and Roberta Blackman-Woods who was MP for the City of Durham. They both undertake research and policy work in the fields of energy, higher education, housing and planning. They are not paid by, and do not receive funds from, foreign governments. They are both employed and funding comes from energy companies and higher education institutions in the UK. This is also how the company receives its funds and no-one in the secretariat is funded by a foreign government.
